Nineteenth Century Travelers' Dinner

Saturday October 17, 2009

6:30-9:00 pm

Join the speakers & participants from the 2009 Western Frontier symposium and some Mohawk Valley travelers from the past for a very special event:

A Night at The Arkell Museum at Canajoharie

The evening includes free admission after hours to the exhibit "Moving Frontiers: Early Transportation in the Mohawk Valley," and a dinner featuring authentic nineteenth century recipes as served in turnpike and canal taverns, prepared by our own favorite chef, Melissa Davidson.

Mulligatawny Soup

Winter Salad

Fresh Baked Rolls

Choice of Entrée: Ham with Madeira Sauce

Salmon

Harvest Vegetable Pie

Mint Peas

Parsley Potatoes

Albany Cake & Vanilla Ice Cream

Tickets $45.00 per person. Available at Melissa's Restaurant or by calling Johnson Hall SHS (518) 762-8712. Period attire is always acceptable.
